

SUPREME COURT APPROVED PROGRAMS THAT PROVIDE SERVICES TO INDIGENTS

Under Article II, Rule 2(b) out-of-state attorneys can seek two-year admission to practice law as part of a Supreme Court approved program which provides legal services to indigents. Under Article II, Rule 2(e) out-of-state attorneys who are employed as a full-time permanent or visiting faculty member of an ABA accredited law school may be admitted to practice law in Rhode Island solely for the purpose of supervising clinical law students providing legal services to indigents as part of a Supreme Court approved program.